NEWSLETTER

Dear Members,

I hope this newsletter finds you well and enjoying the start of spring. Thredbo is enjoying incredible snow conditions at the moment, with 70cm of snow falling last week and apparently more on the way! Thredbo have reduced the price of day tickets for the shoulder season, so if you have a few days spare, why not book a stay at the lodge? Mel and Peter would be thrilled to host you.

Thankyou and farewell!

With the ski season now coming to an end, we would like to thank our managers Mel and Peter for once again going above and beyond and doing an outstanding job in making us feel welcome, comfortable and well fed.

For those of you who do not know, Mel and Peter will be finishing up at Hahnenkamm at the end of this winter season. We would like to thank them doing such a great job looking after the lodge and its guests through the past 5 years. We wish you all the best in your future endeavours.

We encourage members to show their appreciation by contributing to the lodge manager gratuity fund via the form that is attached to this newsletter.
